LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

The following is a list of all the documentation required by Dominican law in order to get legally married in the Dominican Republic.

- Birth certificate of couple or certified copy of birth certificate. If parents' names are not shown on the certificates, please indicate them separately.
- Notarized declaration of single status for the couple. If previously married, submit two copies of the divorce decree or death certificate. There is a mandatory waiting period for women (ten months before they are legally allowed to remarry).
- A photocopy of couple's passport.
- Photocopies of all witnesses' passports. They cannot be family members. If necessary, resort will provide witnesses.
- The couple must be in the country three business days prior to the wedding.

Symbolic and non-legal ceremonies allow flexibility for arrival date. Please speak with the wedding coordinator to discuss requirements.

Please note: The Dominican Republic is now a member of the La Hague Convention. Please have your official documents apostilled by your Secretary of State office. You can also contact vitalcheck.com to request apostilled documents.

All documents must be translated and legalized by the Dominican consulate prior to arriving in the Dominican Republic, except for the passports. The documents should be legalized by the Dominican consulate no more than three months prior to the wedding date. It is the couple's responsibility to have all the documentation ready prior to the wedding.

The Judge is an outside service provided by the Dominican government. We cannot be held responsible for any delay or alteration. The judge will duly register your wedding certificate at the Central Civil Board and legalize it with the Foreign Affairs Department of the Dominican Republic. We will then send the wedding certificate to the couple via mail, which may take up to 10-12 weeks.

The Civil Wedding is celebrated in Spanish. If necessary, Dreams Onyx Resort & Spa will provide English translators without an additional charge. French or Germany translators are available for an additional fee.
